

BY ROYAL APPOINTMENT

A Sembcorp UK employee met the Princess Royal, Princess Anne at a Royal Garden Party held at Buckingham Palace recently.

Kevin Mitchell, who works as a Site Protection Officer at Wilton International, was at the event in June to celebrate the centenary of the Territorial Army (TA).

The event also gave TA members the opportunity to say thank you to their employers for allowing time off to attend training and annual camp.

Kevin has served 24 years with the TA and is one of seven family members who have accumulated a total of 173 years unbroken service between them. All seven have also been employed at one time at Wilton.

He said: "It was a superb day and to be invited was a great honour for me and my family and also my battalion and Sembcorp"

Kevin is currently serving with the 4th Battalion Yorkshire Regiment based at B Company, Stockton Road, Middlesbrough.

The picture shows Kevin (in uniform) and his wife Patricia (left), accompanied by Sembcorp Protection Operations Manager Peter Burke and his wife Jill outside Buckingham Palace.